

See the Light

Lyrics © Kate Northrop, Music © P. Haene, D. Kuhn, 2006. Performed by E.L.I.S.H.

I'm wandering in a maze of doubt
Not lost, but there's no getting out

I'm stranded in the swamp of life
Won't sink, but I can't seem to thrive
Thought I was living once
But what did I know

Walking blind, no choice, no rules
We're carrying on
Like lucky fools
Walking blind
Like lucky fools

Now I see the light
And it's a blinding flame
Almost died of fright
I hang my head in shame

I watch it fade into the night
Until I think it's gone
Thought when I saw it I would be all right
But all it shows me is that I'm so wrong

Working on, no skills or tools
We carry on
Like lucky fools
Working on
No skills or tools

Now I see the light
And it's a blinding flame
Almost died of fright
I hang my head in shame

Now I see the light
It only blinds my sight
Now I seek the night
And I won't fight it
This time

I'm wandering in a maze of doubt
Not lost, but there's no getting out
Thought I was dreaming once
But I sold my soul

Walking blind, no choice, no rules
We're carrying on
Like lucky fools
Walking blind
Like lucky fools

Now I see the light
Through the pouring rain
And I avert my sight
But still it calls my name

Now I see the light
It only blinds my sight
Now I seek the night
And I won't fight it
This time
