

Let Go and Fall

Lyrics © Kate Northrop, Music © Cordula Camenzind, 2009

Verse 1

She's out on a ledge
Looks over the edge
This time she knows
She's gonna crash in flight

She's falling so fast
There's nothing that lasts
It's all she can do
Give up this fight

Chorus

So touch the sky, let go and fall
Nothing that can hold her, her back's up against the wall
And it can be so beautiful
Friends reach out to catch her, she can hear the music now

Verse 2

She's out of control
Life swallows her whole
Takes over now
Give up this fight

It's falling apart
She gives up her heart
Just let it go
It's gonna be alright

Chorus

So touch the sky, let go and fall
Nothing that can hold her, her back's up against the wall
And it can be so beautiful
Friends reach out to catch her, she can hear the music now

So touch the sky, let go and fall
Nothing that can hold her, her back's up against the wall
And it can be so beautiful
Friends reach out to catch her, she can hear the music now
